2.7	Zhe Wen made his elections speech to the 35 th NUSSU council.
2.8	Q&A session opened by Clovis (Com), seconded by Shermon (CSC)
2.9	Clovis, Com Q: How can your experiences be translated to the Council? Ans: The role of the Council Chairperson is to be objective. He will use experiences to de-conflict and mediate between different stakeholders.
2.10	Shermon, CSC Q: What is the Council Chairperson's role and relationship vis-a-vis the Exco? Ans: He envisions the Council as a form of check and balance against the Exco.
2.11	Zhao Yang, PA Q: How will you resolve a conflict situation when the Council becomes very partisan or political? Ans: He distinguishes between partisanship and conflicts. For partisanship, he feels that there should be a stop to it. However, conflicts are inevitable and inherent. As such, for situations involving conflicts, he would sit down with everyone individually and talk to them.

2.15	Q&A session proposed by Shermon (CSC) and seconded by Zhao Yang (PA).
2.16	Zhao Yang, PA Q: What are your experiences and personality? Ans: In Year 2, he was Bizad Club's Academic Director and Flag Project director. He is an Ask-Assertive person. He feels that there is a need to understand individual council members instead of just start discussing the issues. He believes in bringing parties together to see the bigger picture.
2.17	Zhi Xun, Sci Q: Do you see yourself as a mediator? Ans: He sees himself playing many different roles, not just as a mediator
2.18	Zhao Yang, PA Q: Clarifying Flag Head for which year? Ans: He was Flag Project Director for Flag Day 2013.
2.19	Shermon, CSC Q: Will you hesitate to take anybody who isn't performing down? Ans: For him, if someone undermines the whole team, then the last resort is to remove that person from the team
2.20	Shermon, CSC Q: How do you define failure? Ans: There are many ways to define failure, such as not able to push through a motion, problems in school etc. It depends on everyone's value system.
2.21	Shermon, CSC Q: Role of Chairperson vis-a-vis Exco. Ans: He feels that the Chairperson is to Guide and structure discussion. Although there are no executive powers, the Chairperson facilitates executive powers.
2.22	Jia Xin, Arts Q: Why are you interested in the chairperson role? Ans: It is so that he can contribute to NUSSU.
2.23	Jia Xin, Arts Q: If there is a conflict between Bizad Club's direction or

3.1.4	Nominations closed
3.1.5	Yi Da's Elections Speech
3.1.6	Yi Da presented to the council his elections slides. Please refer to the attached slides for further information.
3.1.7	Q&A session opened by Zhao Yang(PA), seconded by Wei Wei (Sci)
3.1.8	Willie, Biz Q: There is an inconsistency in principles. Money for solutions will lead to a slippery slope where NUSSU volunteers might also expect monetary incentives for their volunteering which have hitherto not been incentivised through pecuniary means. Ans: The format of competition requires prizes to incentivise people. This is fundamentally different from volunteering and there will be guidelines to follow. The objective is to reach out to the passive people who have the solutions but not acting on them or forthcoming with them.
3.1.9	Wei Wei, Sci Q: Elaborate on freedom of spending for Rag and Flag. Ans: He does not want to let scarcity of finances constrain the club's performances. As long as freedom of spending generates the best ideas for Rag and Flag, it should be allowed.
3.1.10	Joseph, SDE Q: Lack of interests by the NUS undergraduates, freshman and seniors alike. Anything that can be worked on for Rag and Flag?

	Ans: Spirit of Rag and Flag should be preserved. Moving forward, moving out to the public for Rag and Flag highlights the unity of NUS and a closer Union.
3.1.11	Joseph, SDE Q: How to address falling Flag collections? Ans: He feels that fringe activities or other student groups can also come in to chip in for Rag and Flag instead of just sticking to faculties. The key is to look out for more opportunities for collaboration and participation.
3.1.12	Zi Tong, PA Q: Positive thing that 34thNUSSU Council and Exco did and what can be improved? Ans: Bonded and engaging Council. Reintegration of everyone together could be done better.
3.1.13	Sean, Biz Q: How will your initiatives impact the Union financially Ans: Funding from NYC and external sources that is meant to start ground up initiatives. Union Tea budgets will come from NUSSU's own budget but it is a worthy investment because there is a need to build relations. Generation of revenue from NUSSU Enterprise.
3.1.14	Zhao Yang, PA Q: How do you groom your successor for Vice-President? Ans: Leadership should be open to everyone and not specifically groom a successor. Should groom a wide pool of talents.
3.1.15	Zhao Yang, PA Q: What is your succession plans to properly handover to the next President? Ans: Expose the newcomers to both depth and breadth of knowledge.
3.1.16	Jia Xin, Arts Q: What is your rationale and principle for opportunities fund? Ans: Primary rationale to encourage students to do what they like. Multitude of other reasons such as being able to target students with diverse interests and bringing people of the same interest together.
3.1.17	Willie, Biz Q: What are the similarities between the Council Funding and Opportunities Fund? Ans: Opportunities Fund can fund more projects since it is not set aside from the Union's finances since it is external funding. Hence diverse range of
3.1.18	Geoffrey, Sports Q: Do you foresee cash advancement problem? Ans: Believe in our volunteers and the right person should step up to do

	the job. Cannot completely prevent something from happening, first step is to follow the SOP because the people in office has signed off for the finances.
3.1.19	Zhe Wen USC Q: How does the Union advocates for financial affordability and opportunities for students Ans: Union's role to publicize such financial information to more students. Students' Fund can do more to raising funds.
3.1.20	Zhe Wen, USC Q: How do you foresee the Union to target the people that fall out of the grants and scholarships? Ans: Peach to people outside to set up new grants and scholarship to target the students of the sandwich class.
3.1.21	Shermon, PA Q: How to integrate your candidate into your plans? Ans: Important to keep Clovis into the team as he has a lot of experience in the Union. Appoint him as Deputy President
3.1.23	Joseph SDE Q: What is the progress of the NUS Youth Centre? Ans: Meeting with Professor Albert and Tan Tai Yong, Union will be driving the activities but 2 other full time staff will be managing the space.
3.1.24	Joseph, SDE Q: Rental fees? Ans: No rental, Space already set aside.
3.1.25	Xiang Long, Biz Q: Top 3 concerns for NUS and what have you done in the past year to tackle the issues. Ans: Jobs, opportunities and Employment. The University has kept the Class sizes information from us but the Union can conduct their own surveys to bench mark ourselves with the other top Universities. Bring in own contacts to bring into NUS to open up jobs and opportunities for the students
3.1.26	Shermon, CSC Q: How will Union implement the Tea Session? Ans: Rotating the tea sessions around NUS. Union will provide the resources and the various clubs can help to book the venues and
3.1.27	Desmond, Com Q: Is there a procedure for new Exco Representative to step up after someone resigns. Ans: A by-election can be held to elect someone else into office.

3.1.28	Desmond, Com Q: Is there a way to set precedence to prevent someone else from doing the same thing next time. Ans: Streamline the elections process further and discuss with the Council. His view that everyone should have the freedom to run and it is a fine balance.
3.1.29	Kok Seng (Biz): Difference between YIH Student Lounge and Student Service Centre? Ans: No dilution, Student Service Centre is to facilitate ground up initiatives and YIH Student Lounge is a headquarters
3.1.30	Sean, Biz Q: What are you looking for in your Vice-President? Ans: Definitely looking for a Vice-President that complements me. Shermom has a lot of diverse background that complements my own.
3.1.31	Xiang Long, Biz: Do you think the Union is effective? Ans: General perception if the Union is not effective but the Union is actually doing a lot of good work. Our volunteers should be engaged to spread the good word of the work that has been done. Effectiveness is linked to the relevance of the Union, and hence there is a need to open up multiple platforms for people to be engaged. It is about perception.
3.1.32	Derek, Biz Q: Will the interaction issues be resolved at the end of your term? Ans: Real impact can only be seen in the long term.
3.1.33	Zhao Yang, PA Q: What do you think about Ren Kai's Town Hall meetings? Ans: It is difficult for students to attend Town Hall Meeting. For the Tea Sessions, we are targeting active volunteers but the objectives are to provide them with information. Committed to engagement.
3.1.34	Zhao Yang, PA Q: Would you give out your number to more students? Ans: I am prepared to give out my number to many students and engage them.
3.1.35	Shi Da, Biz Q: How do you address the sentiments of people and have a better impression of NUSSU? Ans: Every NUSSU Volunteer has a duty to safeguard our own reputation by going out there to share it with people. The Tea Sessions help to share information amongst our volunteers.

3.1.36	Shermon, CSC Q: How are you prepared to reconcile after the elections? Ans: He is fully prepared to reconcile and reintegrate after the elections. He has had experiences in other organisations where elections take place. He has learnt to be a good mediator and harmoniser from these organisations and will apply the skills in the Union after the elections.
3.1.37	Joyce, Sci Q: What is the significance of C-Cube, Council and Exco? Ans: C-Cube is the network at the highest tier of the Union. Council is a platform for policy deliberation. A cohesive Exco can support the Union Council's direction.
3.1.38	Close of Q&A session proposed by Zhao Yang (PA) and seconded by Shermon (CSC).
3.1.39	Zhe Wen (USC) proposed for a 30 minutes recess, seconded by Zhao Yang (PA).

3.1.48	Joseph SDE Q: How to tackle the falling Flag donations? Ans: Bring the idea of Flag to the Students instead of be concerned on the donations falling.
3.1.49	Sean (Biz): What is the greatest issue facing NUS Students. Ans: Transport.
3.1.50	Elizabeth, PA Q: Should the financial funding be split for the non-faculty clubs? Ans: To have a discussion with the non-faculty clubs on how the finances is separated. After the discussion is made, if there is no resolution, then do not need to change.
3.1.51	Elizabeth, PA Q: What is the criteria to look at the Ans: Personal opinion that there is no need to change.
3.1.52	Shermon, CSC Q: Comparing the relative difference in the experience of yourself and your candidate how is your experience better for President? Ans: Plus point for being on the ground, better understands the needs of the Union.
3.1.53	Zhi Xun Q: Why the 3 year plan? Ans: Feel that it is the right number of years.
3.1.54	Zhao Yang, PA Q: If the future Presidents do not follow your 3 year plans, will your 1 year have any impact on the Union? Ans: The one year is important to start the groundwork. Some goals that will still be achieved will be the FOCC review.
3.1.55	Shermon, CSC Q: Why were you against the $500,000 that was passed in the 34 th NUSSU Council? Ans: Autonomy of Students to give our own grants, rather than throw the money into the School which they might not need. We should write a write up of the rationale.
3.1.56	Shermon CSC Q: Why is Students' Fund against the $500,000 donation? Ans: Last Chairperson of Students' Fund surely have his grievances but he is not the best person to explain his views.
3.1.57	Derek, Biz Q: What is different from then till now? Ans: Vision for NUSSU has not changed. Become more entrenched in

	Council. Ans: Conclusively settled.
3.2.14	Yi Da, PA Q: What differentiates you from the other candidate? Ans: Willie is very bright. Agrees with his ideal and he looks for personal growth. What differentiates him from Willie is his experience in the Union. Willie's con-club experiences are very good.
3.2.15	Kok Seng, Biz Q: What did you do as the 34th NUSSU Exco Deputy Vice-President? Ans: Elections Regulations review and ad hoc de-conflicting roles. Biggest regret is the Heritage Project because I did not see it through.
3.2.16	Yi Da, PA Q: What should the relationship with Yale NUS vis-à-vis NUSSU? Ans: Hope they can be our constituent club. If they choose to set up an independent group, we should not treat them as a student union from another University because most of the issues that NUSSU tackle will be related to them.
3.2.17	Yi Da, PA Q: What do you think our relationship with the other Students Union ought to be? Ans: Network and share best practices.
3.2.18	Close of Q&A session proposed by Zhao Yang(PA) and seconded by Kellie(SDE).

3.2.23	Zi Tong, PA Q: Why did you change the position that you want to run? Ans: He could learn more from running for the Vice-President position.
3.2.24	Kristabelle, CSC Q: What role do you think non faculty clubs play in the Council and how will non faculty clubs come into your plans? Ans: Non faculty clubs are all constituent faculty clubs and he has plans for all the constituent clubs. Non-faculty clubs represent a large group of people and therefore we should defend the rights of these people.
3.2.25	Yi Da, PA Q: What do you think our relationship with the other Students Union ought to be? Ans: Can have meetings to share best practices.
3.2.26	Willie, Biz Q: How are you going to complement Yi Da? Ans: Will change his plans accordingly to suit Yi Da's plans but will still fight for the plans.
3.2.27	Varun, USP Q: What are the things you can do to change the Constitution Ans: The electoral reform is one thing that he thinks is one of the changes he likes to see through in the 35 th NUSSU Council.
3.2.28	Varun, USC Q: What are the objectives of the CSLC? Ans: A holistic representation of NUSSU in Utown.
3.2.29	Yu Qian, SDE Q: What are the efforts you have put in to understand the Vice-president's role? In the event that you did not get the role, are you willing to learn in other capacities? Ans: Reading the archival such as AGMs and Council Meeting Minutes. Deputy Vice-President Position or other executive roles.

3.3.6	John presented to the council his elections slides. Please refer to the attached slides for further information.
3.3.7	Q&A session opened by Sean(Biz), seconded by Kellie (SDE)
3.3.8	Joseph (SDE) NUSSU Council trips may reflect the waste of funds of the students? What are your thoughts about it? Ans: Council trip do not use any NUSSU fund, 1/3 from OSA, another 1/3 comes from OAR. School is very encouraging to sponsoring. The last will come out from us. Korea and US are worked with the idea of stopover flights.
3.3.9	Wilson, Arts Q: IFO and FIC, where do you want to leave these two projects out? Ans: FIC Collaboration with the school administration and hence will let the administration run the show. IFO is supposed to integrate the local and international students but mostly only joined by international students, IFO should be a continuous integration projects.
3.3.10	Geoffrey, Sports Q: DO you have plans to integrate the existing international groups around NUS. ANs: Removal of IFO is to focus on events like Sparkz. School actually want integration and not division of NUS Students.

3.3.12	Sean, Biz Q: Assisting the constituent clubs in integrating their international students. Ans: In Biz, the dean's office is very support towards this endeavour sharing the full list of exchange students with Bizad club such that Bizad club is able to engage them. However, this is not the case for most faculties. Role of NUSSU is to help actually engage deaneries that are not as supportive to support their con clubs.
3.3.13	Gladys, Sci Q: Elaborate more on intra-cell communication and SOP Ans: SOP changed to something more readable for our volunteers.
3.3.14	Gladys, Sci Q: Any system to facilitate information dissemination Ans: Through the DOPs

3.4.6	Q&A session opened by Sean(Biz), seconded by Zhao Yang (PA)
3.4.7	Shermon, CSC Q: What is the difference between Asec and DOL? Ans: Asec set the direction. Why Dol fulfils. However, there must be a consultative working relationship.
3.4.8	Willie, Biz Q: What is the motivation for running as a Asec. Ans: Contribution diminished by the multiplicity of people running for this post. Why not? Going back to what he has done before yet learn new things. Everyone is acquainted with the student lounge. New exciting project NUS Youth Centre. Bring more value to the union by running as a Asec.
3.4.9	Shermon, CSC Q: Elaborate plans for the NUS youth Centre. How to work with relevant parties. What are the plans for YIH in view of the NUS Youth Centre. How it can complement the YIH student lounge. Ans: Speak to the Vice Provost, and propose to collaborate with external organisation to make it more vibrant. Complement the Comm sec, how

3.4.10	Shermon, CSC Q: How to make it relevant and attractive? Ans: Revive the kampong spirit at the YIH Student Lounge. While at the Youth Centre to set up an informal place that encourages the generation of ideas.
3.4.11	Weijiang, Arts Q: What are the changes proposed for the NUSSU Van. Ans: To set the general direction. How to let the union maximise the usage of the van.
3.4.12	Renkai, Arts Q: Con post as a cell head of sect cell name some challenges that you will face and how you as a individual bring value addedness to this organisation. Ans: First challenge is the need to be around YIH more. Second challenge is the challenge to allocate the limited resources that the union has. As a individual, will ensure that things get done, allocated efficiently, no wastage and reduce informational asymmetry.
3.4.13	Sean, Biz Q: Feasibility in sharing of resources due to difficult in accounting and transporting them. Ans: No 1 size fits all solution, definitely get down and look into the matter.
3.4.14	Sean, Biz Q: What would incentivise con clubs to use these resources? Ans: Basically faculty can use their own resources, but if they need the help of the union, the union should be supportive.
3.4.15	Jocelyn, CSC Q: How about non-fac clubs? Ans: All students are union members. However, they must understand that there are limited resources and con clubs would be the priority.
3.4.16	Gladys, Sci Q: In reality those system are not perfect. What deficiencies are there and how would u address them? Ans: Challenges are resources? Know what is inside the box before thinking outside the box. Get feet wet before saying what to improve.
3.4.17	Shermon, CSC Q: If "ask NUSSU" becomes popular, how would u prioritise who to loan this resources to? Ans: First come first serve basis. Principle of priority, time and

	importance. It is very scenario based. Important to seek a mutual understanding between the parties.
3.4.18	Shermon, CSC Q: What about CommIT? Ans: Relook at what's being done and based on their SOPs look at what they can achieve and how that can bring the Union forward.
3.4.19	Zhao yang, PA.Q: List one good thing you have learnt and how you are going to apply it. Ans: Assisted in the logistics team for RAG2013, logistics had to coordinate with 14 Pbs. Very applicable to role as an Asec. Satisfaction when engaging the students. Can do more for NUSSU, a kampong spirit, entrepreneur spirit, etc.
3.4.20	Letitia, Arts Q: Concrete plans to direct people towards the youth centre besides hot desking. Ans: Permanent personal manning the direction. Speaking to vice provost student life. On how best to coordinate. Concrete plans will be shared later.
3.4.21	Letitia, Arts Q: Would it be wearing the resources too thin? Ans: NUSSU only involved in setting the direction for the youth centre. Paid employees will be managing the day to day operations.
3.4.21	Willie, Biz Q: List 1 strength and weakness. Ans: Strength – hardworking Weakness- not innovative enough to find solutions to problem.
3.4.22	Willie, Biz Q: How do you compare yourself to your contestant? Ans: KS is on the field guy, can fit well. He knows his strengths.
3.4.23	Weixiang, Arts Q: Deviation in role from someone performing the job and someone setting the direction? What if the administrator is unable to perform? Can u take it up? Ans: Come from a logs background. Would definitely be up to task.

3.4.27	Q&A session opened by Shermon (CSC), seconded by Sean(Biz).
3.4.28	Kellie, SDE Q: Limiting van use for adhoc committees. Only on actual camp periods do committees require them. Ans: Drive it for them during camp periods.
3.4.29	Kellie, SDE Q: Will the van be vacant? Will there be any downtime due to this system? Ans: De-conflicting usage allows more activities to use the van. If people need to transport during camp, would help to drive the van. However, con clubs have to reciprocate.
3.4.30	Sean, Biz Q: How would you actively reach out and incentivise use of lounge. Ans: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Hold the first monthly union tea.2. Extend the use of YIH student lounge.3. Work with F&B outlets.
3.4.31	Shermon, CSC Q: What are your motivations for joining the union? How would you to make YIH more attractive? Is it due to bad traffic flow, lack of facilities and attraction or inherently bad location that YIH has not been so popular? Ans: Looking for a volunteerism role. Long term approach, issue of logistics, extend the concept of volunteerism. Engage volunteers for the log role. Need to actually tell them that logistics is not a boring job, let them know it is a dynamic role. Engage marketing solutions. Job rotations internally. Use this concept for NUSSU volunteer. Bad traffic not due to bad facilities but the lack of publicity.
3.4.32	Dennis, Eng Q: Limited usage of van during camp periods would affect logistical support. Ans: Drivers will be tired during the camp period. Propose a volunteer

3.4.33	Desmond, Com Q: Are there any plans to loan for 2 months? Ans: Feasibility of renting vans from external vendors.
3.4.34	Mabel, Eng Q: Bunch of volunteers to drive the van? Ans: Volunteer resource data base. Authorise drivers without a vehicle, how interested are they in helping them. Incentives – maybe per hour basis. Cannot guarantee if it will work out.
3.4.35	Desmond, Com Q: When accidents happens who is liable? Ans: Overall responsibility lies on DOL and Asec. We will select the drivers and they will take charge. If authorise driver, covered under insurance policy.
3.4.36	Shermon, CSC Q: 3 people in cell who are the candidates? Job gets mundane how to make them stay. Ans: Was a Transport operator IC in charged of 20 men. Manage relationships even before conflict occur. Tangible way to bring them out for dinner.
3.4.37	Willie, Biz Q: List 1 strength and weakness? How do you evaluate your fellow contester? Ans: Strength: Prior experience Weakness: Too firm Have not interacted with Zhi Xun much unable to evaluate him. But base on general understand, he would make a better candidate in other areas.
3.4.38	Renkai, Arts Q: List the challenges of sect cell. How u can value-add? Ans: Issue of NUSSU dungeon. Maintenance was pretty bad due to logistical requirements. There were 5 events happening consecutively. To resolve this, propose in consolidating volunteer engagement. Work with project Pds and current union volunteers. Expertise in logistics. Individual as a assistant to the stakeholders. Decision to spit out working relations, facilitating events better due to FOCC background.

3.6.15	Geoffrey, Sports club Q: Complaints on too much email blast. Ans: Effectiveness of email blast. Reaches out to all the students. Frequency 1 week once, not too long and not too big to clog out the mailbox.
3.6.16	Gladys, Sci Q: What kind of challenges do you see in portraying a unified image? Ans: Work on branding. Reinforce the message and let everyone know about the image. Not aware of our other portfolios. This is how best to solve the problem.
3.6.17	Kristabelle, CSC Q: Separate mailing list Ans: Minimum union volunteers know more about the union. Union heritage. What we are, who we are.
3.6.18	Tingfeng, Eng Q: Nexus branding. Ans: Effectiveness can only measured with a survey. Shame to throw it out. Comm cell has made efforts to make it more. Discuss more with DOPs.
3.6.19	Close of Q&A session proposed by Willie (Biz) and seconded by Geoffrey (Sports).
3.6.20	Voting Results: Total Strength: 27 For: 21
